Article 118.

Substitute the following for Article 118, retaining the note thereunder as it exists:—

Suspension during pendency of Criminal Proceedings or Proceedings for arrest for debt or during detention under a law providing for Preventive Detention.

1. A servant of Government against whom proceedings have been taken either for his arrest for debt or on a criminal charge or who is detained under any law providing for Preventive Detention, should be considered as under suspension for any periods during which he is detained in custody or is undergoing imprisonment and not allowed to draw any pay and allowances (other than any subsistence allowance that may be granted in accordance with the principles laid down in Article 117) for such periods until the termination of the proceedings taken against him or until he is released from detention and allowed to rejoin duty, as the case may be. An adjustment of his allowances for such periods should thereafter be made according to the circumstances of the case, the full amount being given only in the event of the officer being acquitted of the blame or (if the proceedings taken against him were for his arrest for debt) of its being proved that the officer's liability arose from circumstances beyond his control. In cases where the arrest is for detention under a law providing for Preventive Detention, the full amount of allowances for the period of detention shall be given only when such detention is held by any competent authority to be unjustified, but not otherwise.

2. A servant of Government against whom a criminal charge or a proceeding for arrest for debt is pending, should also be placed under suspension by the issue of specific orders to this effect during periods when he is not actually detained in custody or imprisoned (i.e., whilst released on bail), if the charge made or proceeding taken against him is connected with his position as a Government servant or is likely to embarrass him in the discharge of his duties as such or involves moral turpitude. In regard to his pay and allowances, the provisions of paragraph 1 above shall apply.

(Government Order No. FI. (B). 5364-65—L.F.A. 86-51-4, dated 18th February 1952)
